

Kathy and Sharon Bell · Seattle

RAMP CAPTAIN

Erich Armbruster of Ashworth Homes

Both Kathy and Sharon, aged 55, suffers from extremely limited mobility, making Erich's and the Ashworth Homes' contribution to their home the perfect gift. Both Kathy and Sharon's smiles were enough reciprocation for Erich and crew!

Morgan Wirth and her mom Kate · Everett

RAMP CAPTAIN

Jacob Thompson of Home Run Solutions

Morgan is ten years old, and suffers from Spina Bifida, Chiari II Syndrome as well as Hydrocephalus, making her unable to walk. Jacob Thompson and crew hit a home run by building her a brand new access ramp in which to see the world.

Summer Cameron and her mom Melanie · Renton

RAMP CAPTAINS

Karl Coy and Gary Potter of Potter Construction

Six-year-old Summer has Spastic Diplegic Cerebral palsy resulting from her birth at just 27 weeks. Summer will now be able to enjoy all the seasons, especially the one that bears to her namesake.

Katheryn Martin · Seattle

RAMP CAPTAIN

Jeff Ramos of Prestige Residential Construction

At 51 years old, Katheryn has had BKA (Below Knee Amputation), and cannot wear her prosthesis due to fluctuations in weight caused by dialysis. Her new ramp gives her the strength to live her life the way she wants to.

Cathy Ramish, Owner of Cathy's Cuddlers · Bothell

RAMP CAPTAIN

Chris Huxford of Westhill, Inc.

Cathy's Cuddlers is a 24-hour integrated special needs childcare center catering to individuals of need from birth to 21 years of age. Her residents now have more room in which to grow and become even more exceptional!

Ken Miller and Effie Highland, and Ken's son Rick Miller · Issaquah

RAMP CAPTAIN

Isaac Woods of Lochwood Lozier

84-year-old Ken suffers from polio and has contracted asbestos exposure from his time in the Merchant Marines. Effie, 86 years old, has Dementia and Alzheimer's, and she cannot walk. Both can now enter and exit their homes.

The things we find bring us the most joy are the simple things, but the effort to get there is often not short of heroic."

– Stacey Sunde